DISCUSSION: The Director, Nebraska Service Center, denied the employment-based immigrant visa petition and reaffirmed that decision on motion. The matter is now before the Administrative Appeals Office (AAO) on appeal. The appeal will be dismissed.

The petitioner is a creator of film and video visual effects. It seeks to employ the beneficiary permanently in the United States as a lead software engineer pursuant to section 203(b)(2) of the Immigration and Nationality Act (the Act), 8 U.S.C. § 1153(b)(2). As required by statute, an ETA Form 9089, Application for Permanent Employment Certification, which the U.S. Department of Labor (DOL) approved, accompanied the petition. The director determined that the beneficiary did not meet the specified job requirements or qualify for the classification sought. The director denied the petition accordingly.

Review of U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services (USCIS) records indicates that, subsequent to filing the instant petition, the alien filed a Form I-485 Application to Adjust Status, receipt number LIN 09 089 50988, which USCIS approved on July 6, 2009. Because the alien has adjusted to lawful permanent resident status, further pursuit of the matter at hand is moot.

ORDER: The appeal is dismissed based on the alien's adjustment to lawful permanent resident status.
